Blackhawks enter player development program

Council Bluffs, Ia. – The Iowa Blackhawks, Council Bluffs’ indoor professional football team, have announced a new player development program with the River City Raiders of the Alliance Football League. The Raiders, who play their home games at Benson High School in Omaha, will assist in the development of players who wish to continue their football careers beyond semiprofessional football.

The Blackhawks open up their 2010 football season at the Mid-America Center on Saturday, April 17th. For ticket information please contact their office at (712) 326.2290 or email info@iowablackhawks.com or visit www.iowablackhawks.com.
