SPRINGFIELD, Mo. – The Iowa Blackhawks improved to 2-0 with a 35-32 win over the Springfield WolfPack on Saturday night.

Quarterback Ben Alford scored three touchdowns (two passing, one receiving) to lead the Iowa offense. Wide receiver Mike Stuart caught a touchdown and ran one in from 4 yards out to secure the win in the fourth quarter.

Defensive lineman Jeff McQuinn, a former Lewis Central standout, led the Blackhawks on defense with three sacks.

Iowa returns home next Saturday to take on the four-time defending APFL Champion Kansas Koyotes at the Mid-America Center.
