Blackhawks open big

The Iowa Blackhawks dominated the Springfield Wolfpack in the season opener 57-13 at the Mid-America Center Saturday night.

The win was an early season statement to league foes and the Blackhawks appeared faster on defense and explosive on offense.

Iowa led 30-7 at halftime with Chuck Wright hitting 17-of-22 passing for 204 yards and five touchdowns. Wright connected with former Lewis Central stars Chris Pomerleau for two scores and Brad Triplett on a nine-yard touchdown.

The Blackhawk defense caused two turnovers and sacked Wolfpack quarterback Colby Hughes five times. The defense held Springfield to only 97 yards of total offense.

Complete details and player interviews will be in the Monday edition of The Daily Nonpareil.
