The Iowa Blackhawks scored on the first offensive play of the game and never looked back during an 80-49 victory over the Denver Titans at the Mid-America Center Saturday.

Mell Holliday rushed for five touchdowns and Marque McCray hauled in four TD receptions during the Blackhawks' largest offensive output of the season.

Chuck Wright's hot hand continued. He completed 13 for 18 passes for 214 yards and four touchdowns.

The Blackhawks (4-0) will travel to Wichita next weekend for rematch with the Kansas Koyotes before returning home on June 6 to face the Mid Missouri Outlaws.
