

Blackhawks snap two-game skid

Published: Sunday, June 21, 2009 12:20 AM CDT

Mell Holliday score five rushing touchdowns and Iowa scored on eight of its 11 offensive possessions in its 74-36 win over the Missouri Mustangs Friday at the Mid-America Center.

The non-league victory snapped a two-game losing skid by the Blackhawks (5-2), who opened the season with five consecutive wins.

Chris Moore and Scott Yates each returned interceptions for scores while defensive lineman Albert Rodriguez recorded a pair of safeties in the first half.

Iowa wraps up its regular season next Saturday by hosting Springfield at the MAC.
