Iowa finished up its APFL season on a high note Saturday, scoring 91 points in a 91-16 victory over Springfield at the Mid-America Center.

Mell Holliday and Chuck Wright paced the Blackhawk offense, which had 10 different players score on the night.

Iowa's defense held the Wolfpack scoreless in the second half while intercepting five passes and scoring a pair of touchdowns.

The Blackhawks finished the season with a 7-2 record and will host the APFL championship game at the MAC on July 25.
