Blackhawks take it to Extreme

By ACE HENDRICKS, Blackhawks Staff Writer

COUNCIL BLUFFS, IA – Jumping out to a 18-point first quarter lead, the Iowa Blackhawks rolled past the Nebraska Extreme, 92-24, at the Mid-America Center Saturday night. The Blackhawks scored 30 first quarter points, and then added a 35-point barrage in the fourth quarter, completely overwhelming the Extreme.

The 92 points was a club record, and the defensive unit recorded four defensive touchdowns, and two safeties. Bosan Burton returned two kickoffs for touchdowns, while the offense generated 240 yards of offense. To top that off, kicker Jerry Lakin connected on 10 of 11 conversions.

Elijah Simmons scored four touchdowns, rushed for 62 yards on 12 carries, and caught one pass for 14 yards; Mike Stuart gained 52 yards on just four attempts, and caught two passes for 11 yards.

The Iowa passing attack looked stellar, with Jake Nimrod and Chuck Wright combining for 126 yards and four touchdowns. Nimrod was 5 of 6 for 73 yards and two touchdowns; Wright was 4 of 6 for 53 yards. Brad Triplett led all receivers with 5 receptions for 73 yards, and a scoring play of 25 yards from Nimrod.

Three different defensive scored for the Blackhawks. Chris Henry recovered a fumble in the end zone, Brandon Carrera returned a bobble 17 yards, and Travis Hines raced 56 yards with an errant Extreme pass.

Jeff McQuinn had a tremendous game on defense; the rookie defensive end recorded a safety, scored on a 14-yard fumble return and intercepted a pass. Ryan Hoden also recorded a safety for the Blackhawks.

The Blackhawks now travel to the Springfield WolfPack on July 5, with hopes of taking a two game lead on the WolfPack in the race for second place in the Conference.
