

Local youth compete in Jaycees competition

Staff photos/Marsha Hoffman - Competitors who finished in the Top 3 in the annual Jaycees Run, Punt, Pass Football Competition Sunday at the Kirn Middle School football field received prizes. The competitors threw and punted the football for distance and accuracy, and ran a zig zag course for their best time. Log on to NonpareilOnline.com to view more photos from the competition.

Published: Tuesday, October 27, 2009 11:44 AM CDT

The Council Bluffs Jaycees held the annual Run, Punt, Pass Football Competition Sunday, Oct. 25, at the Kirn Middle School football field.

The Run, Punt, Pass Football Competition is a nationwide Jaycees event held for competitors in third through eighth grades.

The competitors threw and punted the football for distance and accuracy, and ran a zig zag course for their best time. The competitors who finished first and second in each grade advance to the state Jaycees Run, Punt, Pass competition Nov. 8 at the UNI-Dome in Cedar Falls.

Winners were:

- Third Grade:

First Place: Hunter Nice

Second Place: Hunter Hendrix

Third Place: Connor Smith

- Fourth Grade:

First Place: Landon Mohr

Second Place: Tristan McMillin

Third Place: Opal Fox

- Fifth Grade:

First Place: Frank Jerkovich

- Sixth Grade:

First Place: Kyle Ziemba

Second Place: Dakota Carrier

Third Place: Colton Clingenpeel

- Seventh Grade:

First Place: Joe Northrup

Second Place: John Smith Jr.

Third Place: Jacob Titus

- Eighth Grade:

First Place: Logan Mohr

Second Place: Tyler Colson

Heidi Christensen, Jaycees president, said the organization wanted to thank the boys and girls who participated and their parents, as well as members of the Iowa Blackhawks, who conducted a clinic for the youth and assisted with the competition. Dr. David Jones of Omni Dental Centre, a Jaycees member, was the prize sponsor.